Prayer Focus:

Glory and honor be to our God who has made us one from every tongue, tribe, kindred, and nation that we might declare His great mercy and grace to all people in every place.

With all the turmoil that is happening it would be easy to focus on the problems; to get caught up in fearfulness; to let our thoughts be captivated by material things; but instead let us remember that the Lord our God is sufficient in all situations. Let us remember that He works all things for our good and His glory. Let us thank Him for again turning a hurricane from us while we also remember to pray and do what we are able to help those who have been most affected by it. If you would like to help people throughout the Houston area and are not sure how, let me direct you to Somebody Cares America which is based in Houston. (www.somebodycares.org) I am personally acquainted with Doug Stringer and the world wide ministry that he oversees. I recommend it highly.

After looking through the monthly prayer letters of this year, frankly I am in awe of what the Lord has been having me write. There is a sense of amazement in me at the progression of what has been written and then what we have seen happen. It would be easy to ask, "Who wrote these things?" We are seeing some, but not yet the fullness, of the shakings of which the Lord was speaking and we are seeing some of the great things that He has promised as well. This month will see a historic event for our city. Praise Day Corpus Christi will be an event unlike any that has ever been held in our city as the Body of Christ gathers to lift up the name of Jesus without any other motive. It is not a fund raiser. It is not an evangelistic outreach. It is just for Jesus. How awesome is that?

As we continue to move toward the full expression of the kingdom of God in our area, let us not allow weariness to intrude, or confusion to reign. Let us focus on the Lord Jesus Christ and stand ready to reap in the proper season. That season is very near. I believe that there are three specific areas for us to hold before the Lord in prayer this month.

- ✠ Let us pray that the intercessors of the Lord are not overcome through weariness but rather remain strong, bold, steadfast, and able to persevere to the victory that is already assured.
- ✠ Let us pray that the Lord break off confusion from people's minds and open their understanding so they may be able to grasp the fullness of Christ in them.
- ✠ Let us pray that our leadership be indeed humble before the Lord, quick to repent and steadfastly focused on Christ.

Our Father, hallowed and glorious is your holy name; Thy kingdom, Thy will, O' Lord in us, through us, through the whole earth.

Sincerely,
William W. Lumry, II
